Re: IP 00-1265-C-T/G, "Receivers Disclosure and Request for Instructions"

Dear Judge Tinder:

Subject: TRUST

The Heartland Financial Service and Kenneth Payne relationship with clients was based on TRUST.

Once again we are involved with TRUST with the court-appointed Receiver. We clients have no choice but to accept and TRUST that the Receiver will work for the benefit of the client and make every effort in leaving no stone unturned to recover all assets, domestic or foreign. His job is recovery, not prosecution, and that should be his top priority.

We TRUST that the hours recorded are accurate and the hourly rate is appropriate. We the clients, in the main, do not have the experience, knowledge, or expertise to determine otherwise.

At this point in time, we are objecting to the posting of the above referenced litigation due to the fact that so many clients do not have access to a computer and may be unaware of the deadline of 5 day of July 2001 to register their objections if they have any. We think the receiver, Mr. Knauer, should have issued a mailing of this particular litigation to all clients giving them the opportunity to reply if so moved to do so.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

Oliver and Berniece Warner, 1005 Starkey Rd., Zionsville, IN 46077-1920
